Trends and Outlook

According to Statistics Canada's National Economic Accounts, the Public Administration industry accounted for 4.1% of Alberta's Gross Domestic Product in 2009, up from 3.9% in 1999. The industry's share of Alberta's total employment increased from 4.2% in 1999 to 4.5% in 2009.

Employment in 2009 was 7.1% higher than its level in 2008. Over the last ten years, employment has increased from 65,400 people in 1999 to 89,300 people in 2009.

The Alberta Occupational Demand Outlook: 2009-2013 projects labour demand growth in the following occupations: Managers in public administration; Police officers and firefighters; and Other protective services. The following occupations are projected to experience below average labour demand: Administrative and regulatory; Judges, lawyers and Quebec notaries; and Policy and program officers, researchers and consultants.

3. Size of Businesses in Alberta and the Industry:
